Lance,

Good to talk to you. As we discussed the PSC is agreeable to postpone the deposition scheduled for tomorrow. As we discussed, the PSC may consider postponing indefinitely this scheduled deposition, but at a minimum, we are committed to working with you on establishing a date that works for you to hold the deposition.

Further, as we discussed, attached is the updated subpoena exhibit. I provide the redline version (redlined against the exhibit to your subpoena) so you can better see the changes we made to the scope of the subpoena. Further, to the extent that you need additional time to gather responsive documents, the PSC is committed to working with you on a reasonable extension to allow you time to properly gather the requested information. Feel free to contact me at your convenience should you need additional clarification or to set up a date on which we can expect your production.

Warmest Regards,

Ben Gastel
